BUNKER HILL BRACING UP.

In all these long dreary months of delight fascination and cringing we have seen nothing so refreshing as the dignified and deserved rebuke administered by Governor Rice of Massachusetts to the insolent South Carolina swaggerer of Wade Hampton. The Governor of Massachusetts having declined to surrender Kimpton on a requisition from South Carolina, the bom bastic Hampton wrote an insolvent letter to Governor Rice which he had published in the newspapers before it reached the Massachusetts Executive to whom it was addressed. In his letter Hampton charged Massachusetts with violation of the Constitution of the United States and referring to Governor Rice's statement that the refusal was based upon evidence that Kimpton was not wanted for the purpose of trial set forth in the requisition, but for oth er purposes not contemplated by the rendition laws Hampton declared this a false imputation and wound up his infuriated letter by declaring that he repelled it "with indignant scorn. As we have before stated the evidence was conclusive that the South Carolina authorities were only in search of kidnapping Kimpton under form of law to proclaim under intimidation and violence to young men in that State that he were to be done with Kimpton be fore the requisition in fact proves this, while it has even more clearly shown the propriety of the conditions with which the requisition was complied with. Governor Rice acted upon the advice of the State Attorney General and his own convictions of duty and exercised a discretion which was his right and which has been recognized in all parts of the country. Numerous cases of refusal have occurred and we have a strong impression that within the last dozen years the Governor of Massachusetts declined to surrender a person on the requisition of the Governor of Mississippi.

There has been so much gush and mawkish sentimentalism over Hampton and his risk in Massachusetts that it is reassuring to find that there is a leaven of the old Bay State manhood remaining among her public men and the heart of New England will honor Governor Rice for the following rebuke of the plantation manners too often tolerated by such as Conkling the demagogues as Wade Hampton

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
BOSTON Sept 19 1878

SIR—I received on Saturday last an extraordinary official communication addressed to me over your signature the contents of which I hasten to the newspapers three days before I beg to remind your excellency that any attempted rebuke of Massachusetts by South Carolina for non observance of constitutional or statutory obligations is a refinement of sarcasm which the treasury or other officers of the former State cannot surpass.

The treatment of the case of Hiram Hampton by the authorities of Pendleton District which was unaffected by any person of public or official relations Massachusetts had no quarrel with South Carolina but on the contrary my communication stated that I was desirous to reciprocate the courtesy which your excellency had extended to the representatives of South Carolina in the case. Upon the views and full consideration of the case which I detailed in a previous communication I am in accordance with law and the fact I which convictions of public duty

In commencing the duty on to your excellency I may state that the object of the requisition which is the basis for the purpose of trying Hampton for the crime charged against him but for a different purpose as is sufficiently manifest in the papers of the Attorney general in copy of which was turned with my letter to you and in this opinion and in the clearly established by the evidence

Your excellency's letter requires no further reply. It is sufficient to say that Governors of States and Judges of the courts are the only officers in which the facts are known. I assume language unnecessarily painful to myself or to which in justice and I believe I am not expected to be replied to upon the basis of the Executive Department of this Commonwealth. It is therefore returned.

I am your obedient servant
ALEXANDER H RICE Governor

DEMOCRATIC FINANCIAL HISTORY

[From a Speech by President Seelye of Amherst College.]

Mr. Tilden's scheme of repudiation of the debt of the United States in the hands of the holders of the 5-20s bearing the low rate of interest and the sum per cent. Government right. In reply to this I have to inform you that under the act of December 1870 (16 Stats 121) five twenty bonds were issued redeemable at the option of one year from date bearing interest as follows $40 200 at 6 per cent $50 000 at 5 per cent $246 000 at 10 1-4 per cent $5 000 at 6 per cent $1 000 at 9 per cent $246 000 at 10 1-2 per cent $25 000 at 6 per cent $1 000 at 10 per cent $1 167,000 at 10 3-4 per cent $33 000 at 6 per cent $1,000 at 10 3-4 per cent $1,133,700 at 11 per cent 10 000 at 6 per cent $1 027, last 10 per cent $1 840 000 at 12 per cent making a total of $10 010 000. Additional [illegible] were received, ten [illegible] per cent which were refused. Under the Act of February 8 1861 (12 Stats 123) authorizing a loan of $25 000, 000 bonds of the United States bearing 6 per cent interest. Having twenty years to run were disposed of to the amount of $14 151 000 at an average discount of $2, 151 10 or an average rate of $89 10 per $100. So long as the credit of the Government shall last that the Secretary of the Treasury in January 1861, suggested a confession in financial resource, that the several States be asked as security for the repayment of any money the Government might find it necessary to borrow, to pledge the deposits received by them from the Government under the Act for the distribution of the surplus revenues in 1836, the Secretary believing that a loan contracted on such a basis of security superadding to the plighted faith of the United States that of the individual States, could hardly fail to be acceptable to capitalists

CAPITAL AND LABOR

[From a Speech by President Seelye of Amherst College.]

Another popular error is, that there is a serious difficulty impending between capital and labor. This is a mistaken notion, I believe. There is no conflict between capital and labor. What is meant by capital? The farmer sides a capital. Is there any conflict between the farmer and his hoe? Capital is that part of a man's wealth or possessions which he uses to get more wealth. There is no conflict between capital and labor, there cannot be. There would not be any labor if there were not capital to employ it. The laborer is a capitalist in himself. The very tools he works with, the very muscles he invokes to perform his task, are his capital. Again, capital is necessary to pay for labor. What is the work is there to let to work at this unemployed labor we see and hear of but the simple ongineery of capital? Capital is the essential—indeed, the only—solution of this problem. What is to be done with the idle forces of labor? Why are they idle? For want of capital to employ them is it not? What will give the forces of labor employment, more capital? Is it not—Therefore, the man who undertakes to say to you that there is a conflict between capital and labor I proclaim either ignorance of what he is talking about, or desirous of bringing about a condition of anarchy and the destruction of all interests. We work in building up this country. It is not possible for us to have too much wealth. The more wealth you have in a community the better off it is, in every sense, and especially do the laboring classes profit by the fact

THE VOTE FOR SHERIFF

[From the Commercial 8 [illegible] 28

The vote for Sheriff in Penobscot County at the late election indicates the vigor and purpose with which the people of the taxpayers of the County struck at the odious Court House and Jail Ring in this city. The official vote of the County for Sheriff is as follows

Lewis K Stratton, Greenback and Dem	6 739
Geo W Whitney, Rep	6 111
Stratton's majority	628

The Democrat and Greenback majority on Senators and the rest of the County ticket is about 2 000. The majority of Smith and Garcelon for Governor over Connor in the County is 2 555. It thus appears that between 600 and 600 Republicans in the County, utterly disgusted with the manner in which the Court House and Jail Ring have entered the odious and sham Prohibitory Liquor Law to the great detriment of the welfare of Bangor and the County of Penobscot, voted direct for Mr Stratton and against Whitney, the representative and chief man pilaster of the Ring.

The above is a very charitable estimate of the actual persistent and venomous abuse of the Republican candidate for Sheriff throughout the recent campaign. The stratton at is mad in the above paragraph that he other Vote for this county gives Stratton a majority of 625 over Whitney putting the latter about one thousand behind the Gubernatorial vote and showing that from 500 to 600 Republicans bolted the Republican candidate for Sheriff and voted directly for Stratton. How truthful those statements are may be seen by an inspection of the figures. We have been hinder t carefully prepared table containing the detailed returns of the vote for Sheriff in this county as received from the Town Clerks at the office of the Secretary of State, the footings of which we give below in connection with the vote of Governors of County for Governor

VOTE FOR SHERIFF
Stratton,	8 724
Whitney	6,118
Stratton over Whitney	2,606
VOTE FOR GOVERNOR
Connor	6 173
Smith	8 112
Garcelon,	6 116
Smith and Garcelon over Connor	2 185
Stratton over Whitney	2 606
Difference	421
Total vote for Connor	6 173
Whitney	6 118
Whitney behind Connor	55
Total vote for Smith and Garcelon	8 728
Stratton	8 721
Stratton behind	11

It will be seen from the above that the Commercial has over stated Stratton's vote and his majority by more than one thousand votes and that instead of 500 or 600 Republicans going square over to vote against Whitney, he really ran only 55 votes behind the Republican Governor ticket, while Stratton, the "Greenback and Democratic" candidate ran 141 behind the Greenback and Democratic vote for Governor. The great rebuke to Whitney and Prohibition which the Commercial has made such a parade about, therefore dwindles down to a difference of 21 between the combined majority against the Republican ticket for Governor and that for the Sheriff.

Further, as Whitney ran 122 behind Connor in this city while he ran only 3 behind in the whole county it follows that he not only received the full Republican vote beyond the city lines but 119 ahead of his ticket in the county outside of Bangor. On the other hand Stratton ran 107 ahead of Smith and Garcelon in this city, but fell 12 behind in the whole county, it follows that outside of Bangor he ran behind his ticket 141 votes"

We thank Mr Whitney can send the Commercial's figures it its tenders can

SOUTH CAROLINA STYLE

Wade Hampton having refused to [illegible] as sent to his modest request that the U S Government should refuse its officers from South Carolina, and leave the enforcement of United States laws to the discretion of Duke Hampton has been condoned with the illicit distillers in that State, and in a recent speech to them used this exceedingly Statesmanlike and ministerial language

The present revenue laws of the United States are outrageously unjust and oppressive and no free people could be expected to obey them. Only with the hope that they may be modified next winter, could I advise you under any circumstances to submit to them. Nevertheless for the present perhaps you would better obey them

The Boston Journal is surprised at this language and innocently asks "Didn't Gov Hampton pledge himself to support the laws of the United States Government only a few months since? Well, we think he has been very lavish for several years in his pledges but we never placed so high a value upon them as they passed for in Boston

It seems that Hampton's lieutenant in the 1876 campaign, General Gary, has been very frank by indorsing the "shotgun" policy again, and in a recent speech at Bennettsville, S C., "exulted over the 'Edgefield Intimidation Plan'" as follows
